Dinners in the President's home, Casa de Alcala, on the University of San Diego campus, are always special occasions. The beautifully detailed evenings so thoughtfully hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Author E. Hughes are treasured invitations.

Three such summer evenings were shared by friends from in and out of San Diego. Archbishop John Quinn of Oklahoma, here for a short visit July 1, delighted guests with his piano playing. Gathered for supper and song were Mrs. Helen Anne Bunn, Reverend Laurence Dolan, Mr. Thomas Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. John Frager, Brig. General and Mrs. William McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Melville, and Reverend Lawrence Purcell.

Mrs. Timothy Parkman, from Tucson, Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Gabriel and Dr. and Mrs. Earl Crane came into town from San Bernardino for a dinner July 30 at Casa de Alcala honoring Bishop Leo T. Maher, who will leave shortly for a trip to Rome. Others in the group were Mrs. Fran Harpst of Coronado, Msgr. I. Brent Eagen, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fox and Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbard. Bishop Maher will be missed at the silver anniversary celebration being held on the USD campus on August 28.

Reverend John Myhan, a member of the University's History Department and most recently campus chaplain, was honored at a small gathering July 22 before leaving for his new duties as a pastor in Oregon.

The Hughes' four children were among the guests at Father's request. Old friends Msgr. Joseph Clarkin, Mrs. Joseph Millard and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keelin formed the group.
